

UNC-CH RECYCLING

MIXED PAPER

Includes: white paper (any color ink), cardstock, manila folders, newspaper, magazines, journals, post-it notes, books, color paper, newspaper, and paperboard.

PRINTER CARTRIDGES

You may give used inkjet and laser toner cartridges for recycling to Staples delivery personnel when they deliver Staples orders. If you have a Xerox Multi-function Device through Carolina Managed Print Services, you may recycle your printer cartridges by leaving them beside your campus mailbox.

BOTTLES & CANS

Includes: aluminum/steel cans; aluminum foil/trays; plastic and glass bottles; glass jars; #2, #4, and #5 tubs; pipette tip boxes. Empty liquids out and keep caps on.

CORRUGATED CARDBOARD

Break down and flatten. Place corrugated cardboard next to office trash or by hallway trash can for removal by Housekeeping Services.

OFFICE & COMPUTER EQUIPMENT

These items, along with furniture, CDs, DVDs, videotapes, scrap metal, and white goods may be taken to Surplus Property. Surplus will also pick up items. Please call Surplus Property at 919-962-2134 if you have questions.

BATTERIES

All non-automotive batteries may be recycled by contacting EHS at 919-962-5507. Segregate and pack separately: Alkaline batteries, Li (tape terminals), 9-Volt (tape terminals), Ni-Cad and Button Cell.

CONFIDENTIAL PAPER

Visit wastereduction.unc.edu/CampusRecycling/ConfidentialPaperRecycling for more information.

DESKSIDE BINS

Employees are responsible for taking their recycling from deskside bins to centralized hallway sites. You may order deskside recycling bins from Staples (via ePro), as with other office supplies.
