

NEW TO CAMPUS?

Where to Recycle

In Deskside Bins

Employees are responsible for taking their recycling from deskside bins to centralized hallway sites. You may order deskside recycling bins from Staples (via ePro), as with other office supplies. (Suggested: Customer Item # 758215, Staples Item # 758215, MFR Item # FG295673BLUE)

What To Recycle

BOTTLES & CANS

Aluminum and Steel Cans,
Plastic and Glass Bottles,
#2 and #5 Plastic Tubs
(Please rinse,
they attract bees.)

MIXED PAPER

Phone Books, Cardstock,
Junk Mail, Magazines,
Newspaper, Cereal Boxes,
Frozen Food Boxes,
Softcover Books

Why We Recycle

- Recycling reduces the need for more landfills.
- Corrugated cardboard is banned at the Orange County landfill.
- Aluminum cans and plastic bottles are banned from landfills in North Carolina.
- Recycling helps to conserve natural resources and energy.
- Recycling decreases emissions of greenhouse gases that contribute to global climate change.
- Recycling has created more than 14,000 jobs in North Carolina.

How to Go Even Greener

- If you are interested in making your events greener, or taking our green events training, please go here for more information: <http://www.wastereduction.unc.edu/GetInvolved/GreenEvents.aspx>
- Keep an eye out for Green Office trainings through Human Resources, which will be listed here: <https://itsapps.unc.edu/TrainDev/> and printed in the University Gazette.

The Office of Waste Reduction and Recycling

919-962-1442 | recycling@facilities.unc.edu
wastereduction.unc.edu

